PLEA ADVANCED FOR ORIENTAL EXCLUSION

Committee Hears Aims of California Exclusion League

Washington—Absolute exclusion for the future of all Japanese immigration with permission allowed for only temporary residence for tourists, students, commercial men, artists and teachers, was proposed before the House immigration committee yesterday by a representative of the Japanese Exclusion League of California, as the fundamental basis for permanent immigration legislation.

There was presented a declaration of principles drafted by the league and approved by the California Legislature and eight other western states.

The declaration called first for the absolute exclusion in the future of all Japanese immigration, "not only male, but female," as well as laborers, skilled and unskilled, and those of all trades and professions, as recommended by former President Roosevelt.

For the Japanese legally entitled to residence in California there was asked fair treatment, protection of property rights legally acquired and the privilege of engaging in any business desired "except such as may be now or hereafter denied to all aliens, or to aliens ineligible to citizenship; provided particularly they may not hereafter buy or lease agricultural lands."

Attention of the committee was invited by the witness to what he characterized as "the surreptitious entry" of 700 Japanese who had settled in Nebraska. They came without passports and were unable to send for "picture brides," with the result that 10 per cent of them already had married American girls.

WANT FREEDOM FOR CANADA

Dominion Stirred By Address Favoring Independence

Montreal—Explosion of a bomb in their midst could scarcely have produced a more startling effect in political circles than a speech delivered to the woman's section of St. Jean Baptiste Society by the Prime Minister of the Province, A. L. Taschereau, did when it reached the ears of the English-speaking population.

Premier Taschereau made the alarming assertion that the confederation is in danger of breaking up and that Canada is at the parting of the ways and must oppose either the status quo, seek independence or annexation to the United States.

He made it evident that independence, at least for French-Canadians, had attractions for him, and equally evident that rather than be annexed to the United States he would retain British connection for a time. The Prime Minister introduced his startling review of the political outlook with an attack on nationalization of railways, which he declared forced Eastern Canada to bear the burdens of the west in order to save the western provinces from bankruptcy.

BRITISH MINERS CONFER

London—The British mine owners have completed proposals which, it is believed, may go some way toward the settlement of the coal strike. This is the outcome of a conference held at the Board of Trade between the owners and government officials, where a revision of their previous offer to the miners was considered.

A potash plant has opened in Tulare county, near Terminus Beach.

Santa Clara university, the noted Catholic college, at Santa Clara, has abandoned athletics.

JAPAN DETERMINED ON YAP MANDATE

America Denied Cable Rights and Open Door

Washington—That Japan is determined to retain exclusive control of the island of Yap and to deny the United States not only cable rights but the commercial open door in this and other former German islands in the North Pacific is disclosed by the correspondence between Washington and Tokio, made public by Secretary of State Hughes.

The last of the series of exchanges, however, is Hughes' trenchant note demonstrating that inasmuch as the United States has not ratified the Versailles treaty it has not given its assent to the allocation of the North Pacific islands to Japan or to the inclusion in the mandate of Yap, which President Wilson reserved for internationalization.

Japan has not yet replied to the Hughes note and is already beginning to lose the support of the allies. Italy has taken a stand favorable to the contentions of the United States and France has undertaken to obtain a review of the matter by the supreme council. Great Britain has not indicated its attitude. Prayerful consideration of the American demands, however, is not lacking either in London or Tokio in view of the attitude of the Harding administration that it will take no steps toward partial ratification of the Versailles treaty until its rights in the confiscated territories of the central empires are conceded by the allies.

NEW ROAD IS PLANNED

Bond Appropriation Includes Road to Parallel Mt. Diablo Section

Byron—A highway down the picturesque Mount Diablo section through the Marsh Creek country is projected. In the recent bond issue voted for highways for Contra Costa,, $180,000 was included for a roadway from Concord east via Clayton down the mountain to the Brentwood-Byron valley.

Eighty thousand dollars of this sum will be spent on the Concord-to-Clayton division, where there will be six miles of the finest macadam road in the north, connecting with the concrete highway at Concord.

One hundred thousand dollars will be expended on the Marsh Creek division. From the base of Mount Diablo on down the mountain for a distance of seven miles, the roadbed will be twenty feet wide. Some of it will be cut through solid rock, making the grading extremely costly. It will be graveled, packed and rolled in other portions, making it one of the finest mountain highways in the state. Three bridges will be built across Marsh creek, where the road now runs in the creek bed.

The completion of this work, for which bids will be advertised at the May meeting of the Board of Supervisors, will throw open to the tourist travel of the northern section of California one of the grandest routes outside the Yosemite valley.

The new highway will cut the distance from Stockton to Oakland to seventy miles, shortening the present route via the concrete roads by more than ten miles.

NEW PEST APPEARS

Rats Now Threatening Crops Near Willows

Willows—A new pest has appeared in the rice fields, according to reports. The many acres of unthrashed rice have brought thousands of birds of various kinds to the section and they have a fat living during the winter months. First myriads of mice appeared and did much damage. Now a new species of rat is threatening the rice shocked in the fields.

It is described as a rodent twice as large as the ordinary rat which infests towns and cities and is of a reddish color. These rats make their nests in the rich shocks, and in those where they have nests they have eaten all the grains from the heads.

Bundle wagon men with pitchforks have slain thousands. When driven from rice fields by heavy rain, the rats infested cellars of houses and devoured all edibles.

LOSS IN EASTERN STORMS

Memphis, Tenn.—Incomplete reports from the six states swept last week by storms showed at late returns eighty-three deaths, with twenty seriously injured and nearly 130 suffering lesser injuries. Property damage, it was estimated, will run into the millions, and when reports come from isolated sections it is feared that the death toll will be higher.

ENGLAND BARS U. S. DEPORTEES

Plymouth (England)—A number of undesirable aliens deported from New York on the Kroonland were refused permission to land, although they had originally embarked for America in this country.

CHAUTAUQUA COMING TO CAMPBELL NEXT WEEK

The local Chautauqua Committee desires to announce April 27-28-29 as the dates upon which the Radcliffe Chautauqua will be held here. The Bureau at Washington promises the people of our community an unusually attractive and varied program.

No time or effort has been spared by Mr. Radcliffe to bring to nearly 2000 of America's smaller communities that spirit of civic pride and world-wide outlook which hitherto has been expected only in the large cities.

It will be a great community asset—a real festival of inspiring music, wholesome amusement and lectures by men of vision and leadership who will discuss topics on subjects in which every American is vitally concerned. In building the program the utmost care was exercised in engaging only artists whose ability on the public platform has been thoroughly tried and proven. Each is a real artist in his or her line thereby assuring musical treats of the highest character.

In the series of lectures the keynote of Americanism and American ideals will be sounded with a clarity that will grip all. The messages are timed to the needs of the hour. They will be accurate, vigorous and delivered in a virile, convincing style. In brief, the program in its entirety, will touch all phases of life for the help, encouragement and entertainment of all kinds of people.

The Chautauqua Director will be Dr. G. M. Klepfer of Penna, and in addition to being in charge of the program he will speak on the second day. The other lecturers and entertainers are:

Edward Tomlinson,
of Atlanta, Ga., "the brilliant young American orator who explained America to the British Army."

Harry Hibschman, LL. D.,
of Spokane, Wash., lawyer, official A. E. F. lecturer in France; member of the Council of Defense and of the Committee of Public Defense.

Oakley Concert Trio,
Presenting piano, violin and cello trios; baritone, soprano and contralto trios; solos on trombone, cello and violin. Fourth season with Radcliffe.

The Winters' Entertainers

The price of an adult season ticket to the Chautauqua for the entire three-day program is $2.00 and a child's season ticket $1.00. All the proceeds from the sale of season tickets, as well as single admissions, belong to the local committee, and the profit, after expenses are paid will be used in connection with promoting the welfare and interest of the community.

ANNUAL ROLL CALL

The Methodist church held its annual Roll Call Friday evening, which began with supper at six o'clock.

At the conclusion of the meal, S. G. Rodeck read the names of those members who have passed on to the church above, while those present remained standing. Of the present membership 72 responded to the roll with verses of Scripture. Rev. W. H. Lloyd and Dr. Arthur Bonner were present and spoke briefly, while other former pastors sent letters of greeting and cheer.

Other pleasures of the evening were readings by Mrs. Alison and Mr. Parkhill, a recitation by Helen Alison, piano selections by Mrs. Silk and a duet by Mrs. Blaine and Rev. Farr.

The singing of "God Be With You 'Til We Meet Again" concluded this yearly event to which the members all look forward with pleasure.

The hostess then served delicious refreshments and the club adjourned to meet April 27th at the home of Mrs. A. C. McBride on Payne avenue.

PROFITABLE PLAY

Thursday evening of last week the B. Y. P. U. of Sunnyvale put on a comedy entitled "Between the Acts" to an audience that filled the grammar school auditorium.

While any amateur play is always more entertaining to the home people this performance was well appreciated by the Campbell spectators. A clean little play, not demanding a great deal of dramatic ability, the dialogues and side remarks were witty and full of humor.

The orchestra furnished good music, which added much to the success of the entertainment.

The Home and School Club shared in the receipts of the evening, which netted the treasury about $25.

ZAYANTE INN BURNED

Prune and Apricot Growers of California:

Soon after April 30, we shall know whether the California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc., is to continue its existence or be a thing of the past. If there is ONE REASON why the growers should not join the Association, I am too dull of comprehension to grasp the situation. If a proposition was made to you to deed one half of your orchard, without compensation, to another party, you would resent the suggestion vigorously. To kill off the Association means the equivalent of doing just such a foolish thing. The true value of your orchard is based on its income capacity. If you voluntarily reduce your income at least fifty per cent, you might as well deed away one-half of your orchard; then you would be ahead of the game—you would have only one-half the labor—you would have to pay only one-half the taxes, etc.

Many years of experience of the prune and apricot industry has proven that the above statements are true. The law of supply and demand has never worked in the prune industry, except when most of the supply is in the hands of the Association, the representative of the growers. Without any ill feeling toward any man or set of men, it is a fact beyond contradiction that prior to the advent of the Association prices were fixed by the organized speculators, who became the buyers. In almost any other line of business the seller has had something to say on the subject. Are we, Mr. Grower, going back to the time when a few speculators could, and did, fix the price of your land and your labor? Are you content to work a whole year—every year—suffer anxiety, pay the taxes, interest, etc., and then permit a few men to tell you how much of your proceeds they will allow you? They take no chances—they wait until your produce is ready for delivery. If the thrips get your crop, it's your loss, not theirs; if the frost kills your apricots or prunes, it is your loss, but after you have sprayed and smudged and toiled and worried, then to have the prices set for you by the buyer, seems to me pretty hard to endure. But you do not have to. You through your Association, can make markets and profit by it. You can get all that is coming to you, by co-operating, by being loyal to your Assocition, loyal to each other and loyal to yourself.

If, by opposing the Association, growers were only hurting their own interests, we should have no right to complain, because their action would be their own business, but to those of you who fail to join and who are jeopardizing the perpetuation of the Association, it is my business, and the business of every property owner, whether an orchardist or otherwise, every banker, merchant, professional man, laboring man, for the reason you are retarding general prosperity. Perhaps you are wealthy and prosperous and think you don't need the Association. If so, why not "throw out the life line" to your less prosperous neighbor who does need the Association? Perhaps you are of the opinion that the Association is "a good thing" but by staying out and letting your neighbor "hold the sack" you may be able to receive some special advantage. That thought is not honorable, nor neighborly, and experience during the past four years has proven the same generally fallacious.

I repeat what I have often heretofore said: it behooves the growers of prunes and apricots to sign up their acreage at once. The Association needs you, and you need the Association. If you do not like one or more, tell them so; perhaps they will resign rather than perturb you, but for goodness sake be broad enough to protect your own interests and contribute toward general prosperity, remembering that the Association is bigger, greater, grander than any man or set of men. Do not give ear to the unholy propaganda of the envious, the selfish, who by insinuation and inuendo turn you from the highway of prosperity to the narrow winding road of financial ruin.

Sincerely Yours,
T. S. Montgomery, President.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

While the Matron's Medal Contest last Monday evening was not as well attended as it should have been to hear the six contestants compete for the priz, those who attended felt well repaid. The program was presided over by Mrs. Anna Beal, state organizer. There were three songs by the Grammar School Glee Club composed of boys and girls whom Mrs. Helen Davis inspires with evident enjoyment and pride in their work. Miss Irma Young favored the audience with two piano solos and Miss Olive Burgess sang very sweetly, having for accompanist Mrs. E. C. Merrill, whose playing continues to charm.

The contestants and subjects of their readings are as follows: Those from Campbell were Mrs. H. L. Preston, "Let us make our Victory secure"; Mrs. Clara Baldwin, "The Convict's Violin"; Mrs. Mary Parkhill, "My Mother's Song." From San Jose: Mrs. Laura Beal, "Sister, why weepest thou?"; Mrs. May Draper, "The Bride's Toast," and Mrs. Charlotte Williams, "His Flag and his Country."

The presentation of the medal was made in happy vein by Mrs. Ellen R. Smith, who affirmed, among other things, that she was proud to belong to an organization that worked so earnestly and faithfully for prohibition, purity and patriotism as did the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She did not envy the judges their difficult task in deciding where to award the medal when all did so well.

The program closed with the singing of "America" by the audience.

LOSS IN EASTERN STORM IS MILLIONS

Property Damage is Heavy in Worst Blizzard of Years

Memphis, Tenn.—Incomplete reports from the six states swept on Friday and Saturday by storms showed at late returns eighty-three deaths, with twenty seriously injured and nearly 130 suffering lesser injuries. Property damage, it was estimated, will run into the millions, and when reports come from isolated sections it is feared that the death toll will be higher. As compiled at present the death list was:

Texas, 9; Arkansas, 71; Mississippi, 8; Alabama, 14.

Torrential rains have delayed relief work, but in Arkansas the Red Cross has begun work in counties where hundreds of families are homeless. Tents have been supplied by the National Guard and food supplies are being sent in.

Extent of property loss cannot be determined for days. In Arkansas on many plantations in Miller and Hempstead counties practically every building was destroyed, newly planted crops washed out, orchards ruined, roads and bridges badly damaged, while wires were almost all destroyed. Railroads report tracks washed out at many places. Estimates made on the loss in these counties place the property and crop loss at over $2,000,000.

At Atlanta, O'Farrell and Avinger, across the Arkansas line in Texas, many farmhouses and outbuildings were destroyed and crops are almost a complete loss.

In Mississippi, in addition to the actual loss from high winds, much farm land was inundated.

In Alabama, property loss in Birmingham is estimated at $200,000, with ten injured.

In Georgia, where a heavy wind and rain storm struck at Rome, the property loss will exceed $200,000, it was reported.

If you couldn't make money selling prunes and apricots independently ten years ago, you can't do it now.

Feeling at Home

In an editorial printed in one of the San Francisco dailies, a few days ago, the writer commented interestingly and thoughtfully on the atmosphere of the average Bank. His conclusion was that while banks are apparently equipped with an aim to be impressive and to inspire confidence, they only succeed in making their patrons feel stiff and uncomfortable.

The point is doubtless well taken. A frank statement of that sort from the angle of the customer, is just what the bank people want. We appreciate it. We are very sure, however, that the country bank has an easier, a less formal atmosphere than the big city bank. Country air is charged with friendliness. We try to catch some of that, and communicate it to our patrons; we try to make them feel quite at home—literally, like members of the bank family.

One good way to get more of the "at home" feeling in the bank, is to come more often—get better acquainted. But of course you have no time to waste; so have good reason for coming—make larger use of bank service. Have a checking account as a matter of course; and then, if you haven't already done so, invest $2 in the rental of a Safe Deposit Box. That box gives you a spot sacred to yourself; more your own, really, than any place in your own home; for only at your written permission, can any one else have access there. You will find that box a remarkably fine service for a cost so nominal.

Eating to Keep Well

Eating to keep well isn't much different from eating of any other sort. In any case we eat because we are hungry. Some foods, however, have a particular value as producers of sound health.

Triscuit:—You know that this is like Shredded Wheat, but is in a more convenient form. Toasted Triscuit is just about the most wholesome and satisfying breakfast item imaginable. 20c; 2 for 35c.

Grants Hygienic Crackers--a real "hard tack"—an exerciser for the teeth and a tonic for the whole system. A lady who could give us a fine testimonial for Grants Crackers is bashful and doesn't want us to mention her name. We won't. But if you see anybody who has suddenly grown to look ten years younger, she's the one. The crackers are 30c a package.

Digestive Crackers—A whole wheat cracker unsweetened. About the size and texture of a graham cracker. Often recommended by doctors. By the pound, at 25c.

Pineapple, broken slices, big cans, retailing at 25c. You may not remember that pineapple is about the most health-giving fruit known. Note the low price, and take advantage of it.

MASONS HOSTS

Charity Lodge, F. & A. M., was host to the ladies of its members Saturday evening, when nearly a hundred were seated at the banquet which was served at seven o'clock.

The entertainment opened in the lodge room where the Sykes' orchestra and the Argall Brothers Trio furnished an interesting program of vocal and instrumental numbers.

Tables were then arranged for cards, while devotees of Terpsichore adjourned to the lower floor. Still others passed the time in visiting and all departed as the spirit moved them, having enjoyed a pleasant reunion.

THREE PRESIDENTS ASK AID FOR CHINA

Harding, Wilson and Taft Appeal to Americans to Help Stricken Millions of Sister Republic.

The President and two ex-Presidents of the United States have joined, for the first time in the history of the country, in an appeal for a philanthropic enterprise. President Harding, ex-President Wilson and ex-President Taft are all in the forefront of the movement to send aid from America to the famine victims of China.

One of Pres dent Harding's first official acts after his inauguration, taken when he had been in the White House less than two weeks, was to renew the appeal made by his predecessor in behalf of America's sister republic in the East. President Harding said in part:

"At this, the earliest practicable moment in my administration, I desire to add my own to the many appeals which have been issued heretofore in behalf of the starving people of a large section of China. * * *

"The picture of China's distress is so tragic that I am moved, therefore, to renew the appeal heretofore made and to express the hope that the American people will continue to contribute to this humanitarian cause as generously as they possibly can."

In appointing the American committee for China Famine Fund, with his own immediate predecessor in the White House, ex-President Taft, as one of the members, and Thomas W. Lamont of New York, as chairman, President Wilson said in his proclamation:

"Not only in the name of humanity, but in that of the friendliness which we feel for a great people in distress, I venture to ask that our citizens shall, even though the task of giving is not today a light one, respond as they can to this distant but appealing cry for help."

LIFE SAVING STAMPS HELP FAMINE VICTIMS

Each "Mercy" Sticker Purchased for Three Cents Provides Food for One Day for a Chinese.

Sales of "Life Saving Stamps" by the American Committee for China Famine Fund for the benefit of China famine victims have reached a total of thousands of dollars at the end of the first month, and already the money is actually saving lives in China. Orders during the first month aggregated more than 10,000,000 stamps, which will mean—at the rate of 3 cents for each stamp—$300,000 for the Chinese when the complete returns have been made. The stamps are intended to secure a multitude of small contributions from persons who will not have an opportunity to contribute in other ways. The campaign for China is the greatest single philanthropic effort now before the American people.

Every state in the Union is now cooperating in the life saving stamp sales, and special committees are at work in more than 2,000 cities throughout the country. The circulation of the stamps is being effected by sales organizations composed of officers of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, assisted by commercial organizations, schools, churches, Boy and Girl Scout Camps, Y. M. and Y. W. Christian Associations, fraternal lodges, hotel associations, boards of education and other volunteers interested in the movement to extend a helping hand to a sister republic in distress.

House to house canvassing for the sale of the stamps—which are intended to be placed on the backs of letters and packages—has proved the most effective method in the smaller communities. In the big cities the stamps have been sold to business houses, which are using them on their outgoing mail and packages. A nominal quota of ten stamps for every adult has been set by the committee, but in many centers this already has been passed. If unable to obtain stamps through a local committee write China Famine Fund Committee, Bible House, New York.

BUY CHINA LIFE SAVING STAMPS

If each person buys ten stamps at a cost of 30 cents, this community will go over its stamp quota.

Stamps can be secured from the local China Famine Fund Committee or directly from China Famine Fund, Bible House, New York City.

FOUND IT

A nervous-looking man went into a store the other day and sat down for a half hour or so, when a clerk asked him if there was anything she could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away and he sat an hour longer, when the proprietor went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man, "I just wanted to sit around. My physician has recommended quiet for me, and says above all things I should avoid being in a crowd. Noticing that you do not advertise in the newspaper, I thought that this would be as quiet a place as I could find, so I just dropped in for a few hours of isolation."—Corvallis (Ore.) Republican.

POWDER RIVER
Strand Theatre, Los Gatos

That the house will be sold out for the performances when the Powder River war pictures are to be shown at the Strand Theater Wednesday and Thursday, April 27 and 28, seems to be a foregone conclusion. Perhaps one of the most spectacular features of the picture is the scene where German artillery find range on American artillery, which, although under a death-dealing fall of shells fights valiantly forward to victory. Another terrible realistic part of the picture is where the infantry advances to successful attack under a rain of shrapnel. Men are actually seen to fall under the hail of shells. The battle between the German airmen and an American observation balloon is also thrilling in the extreme. The balloonist is forced to desert his gas bag by parachute. The German airman sets the balloon on fire but is himself hit by the machine gunners and is brought crashing to earth. A wonderful picture of the doughboys going over the top at "zero hour" of 4:35 A. M., huge tanks climbing over German trenches after tearing their way through the Germans' barb-wire entanglements, men of the 91st bombing the Germans out of the Argonne, by guns in action, the merciless barrages and the real action of the boys from the Golden West, makes this truly a remarkable picture. The local Post of the American Legion are indeed to be complimented in bringing this wonderful picture to our city. Tickets 75 cents.
